

Report on SCA Course

Title of the course

What we know about Venture Capital in Europe: exploring VICO

Venue

Department of Management Economics and Industrial Engineering – MIP School of Management
– Politecnico di Milano

Date

February 4-5, 2015

Organizers

Massimo G. Colombo, Massimiliano Guerini

Objectives

The objective of the course was to describe the features of the VICO infrastructure, highlighting its potential applications to early stage researchers interested in entrepreneurship and entrepreneurial finance, practitioners and policy makers.

Main results

The course trained participants to address research questions in the entrepreneurial finance field using the VICO infrastructure. The contents of the course were presented through six presentations – three focusing on the theoretical framework/research questions and three focusing on the technical aspects of the infrastructure. During the final session of the course, participants had the opportunity to explore the VICO infrastructure and to replicate the analysis shown during the presentations.

List of participants: see ANNEX 1

Programme: see ANNEX 2
